Product Description

Ultimate Flight Gaming Chair With 3DOF Motion Platform

Production Introduction:

1. The world's first all-aluminum alloy used to produce a dynamic platform with a cool appearance, tiny and exquisite equipment, a small footprint, and the ability to be used at home.

2. The world's first three-axis dynamic platform independently developed by Yihuanyuan, which mimics flying in all directions, replacing the traditional three-axis flight dynamic platform with a better dynamic experience.

3. Three 32-inch displays are completely covered, providing a broader viewing angle and a quieter experience.

4. Suitable for a wide range of large-scale 3A flight games.

5. The integrated technology enables seamless integration of flying games with dynamic seats, resulting in refined dynamic attitude feedback.

6. The PXN-2119 flight joystick is used to enhance the realism and play ability of the operation.
